BOARDMEMBER COMMENT:

Linda will contact Diana Ahern – could write for the newsletter to ask for more committee members.

PARKS AND RECREATION STAFF REPORT:

1. Area Manager Report: Oscar Eusebio

We are maintaining the park – taking care of low branches. An annual inspection of the water is coming up. This week we had a big group project. 30 volunteers helped clear the slope. We finally have the park rangers are coming to the park and will do an assessment on the issue related to unleashed dogs. They are going to make it a regular visit. First encounter is to educate. The second time is a warning. The third time they will issue a ticket. Tickets are expensive. Oscar spoke to UCSD police officer – the coyote issue is all over.

2. Asst. Center Director Report: Kelley Marvier - Nobel Recreation Center
Saturday, March 28, – Spring Egg Hunt.
We lost Dance to evolve on Saturdays.

3. Branch Manager: William Mallory, North University Community Library Sparkles Elementary – outreach – It was a regular UC event – The library talked to the community. We had some library staff promote the library.

We have some events – Festival of Colors – Saturday, February 21, 2:00 – 4:00 p.m.

Play with powdered colors

Lunar New Year – Saturday, February. 28, 1:00 – 3:00 p.m.

William was transferred to the Central Library, and he will be in charge of their art and music dept. They have a lot of concert series. The new branch manager is Kat Carn.
