

As a Chief of Staff at city hall and Board Chair for multiple nonprofits, Venus Molina has spent the past 20 years expanding access to housing, driving neighborhood economic growth, and delivering results for San Diego's working families.

She is the experienced, bold, and effective leader we need to:

- Fight to bring down the cost of living
- Dedicate funding for our infrastructure and municipal services
- Champion environmental sustainability and stop the continued Tijuana River degradation
- Stand up to extremist federal policies threatening our immigrant communities

Raised in Sherman Heights, Venus was the first in her family to go to college and experienced living paycheck to paycheck as a single working mom. That's why her top priority is to stop the rising costs that continue to overwhelm household budgets.

Venus brings the leadership and experience we need in District 8 and will be ready to fight for our residents on day one.

As your Councilwoman, Venus will dedicate every day to keeping us safe, making monthly bills more affordable, and creating good-paying local jobs for San Diegans.
