Man Killed, Brother Arrested in Point Loma Stabbing

San Diego – On Tuesday, May 26, 2026, just after midnight, San Diego Police Communications received multiple reports of a stabbing in the Barons Market parking lot, located on the 4000 block of West Point Loma Boulevard. Officers responded with medics and rendered aid to the unconscious victim. He was transported to a local hospital, but unfortunately, he did not survive his injuries. The victim is described as a 19-year-old Black male. His name is being withheld at this time.

The suspect was identified as the victim's 29-year-old brother Charles Fluker. Officers located and arrested Fluker at his residence on the 2700 block of Ulric Street at about 4:40 a.m. The Homicide Unit was notified and is handling the investigation. Fluker will be processed, interviewed, and booked into county jail for the homicide. Anyone with information about this case is asked to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
