Suspicious Death in East Village Determined to be Suicide

San Diego – On Monday, June 15, 2026, at about 4:50 A.M., San Diego Police responded to a report of an unconscious man on the sidewalk near the intersection of 13th Street and F Street bleeding heavily from his head. Officers responded and found the man, along with another person performing first aid. The man had obvious trauma to his head. Officers and medics also attempted life saving measures, but the man did not survive his injury. He was described as an Asian male in his twenties.

Initially, there were no witnesses to talk to or security video available to review to explain how the man sustained the injuries, so the death was called suspicious. The Homicide Unit was notified and responded to investigate. Detectives have since located video that confirms the death to be a suicide. No further information will be released.
