Victim Identified in Core-Columbia Stabbing

San Diego – On June 15, 2026, at 12:48 a.m., the San Diego Police Department (SDPD) received a report of a stabbing. When officers arrived, they found the victim unresponsive with at least one stab wound. First aid was rendered by officers and medics transported the victim to a local hospital, where he died.

The victim has been identified as 37-year-old Michael Cramp. He is a resident of San Diego.

Conrad Waldron, 22, was arrested for homicide later that morning and is currently in custody. Investigators have also learned there was another non-fatal stabbing and robbery two blocks away at 100 W. Broadway about an hour before the homicide. Waldron is suspected of that crime as well and has been charged with it.

Detectives continue to work on this case. Anyone with information about this case is asked to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
