Man Killed in Point Loma Heights Identified

San Diego – On July 2, 2026, at 1:50 a.m., San Diego Police Dispatch received a report of person down in the 4400 Block of Nimitz Boulevard. San Diego Fire-Rescue along with San Diego Police personnel arrived and located an unresponsive male in the roadway. SDFD Medics performed life saving measures on the male, and he was transported to a local hospital, where he later died. Medical personnel at the hospital located traumatic injuries to the male's upper body, including a gunshot wound. These findings prompted a homicide investigation.

The victim has been identified as Darrell A. Cogdill, a 62-year-old San Diego resident.

SDPD's Homicide Unit is handling this ongoing investigation. Anyone with information about this case is asked to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
