Nicole Crosby is San Diego's voice for a city hall that puts working families first.

- Keeping Communities Safe: As a Deputy City Attorney, Nicole led San Diego's Gun Violence Restraining Order Program to get illegal guns off our streets. She stood up for victims of elder and domestic abuse, prosecuted slumlords exploiting tenants, protected kids from harassment, and connected vulnerable residents with critical services.

- A Leader Who Gets Things Done: Nicole's a working mom and immediate past President of the Clairemont Town Council and the Holmes Elementary PTA. She's always stepped up for her community and will fight for a more affordable San Diego, better transit, and world-class city services.

- Accountability That Delivers Results: Nicole stood up against developers abusing ADU loopholes, and spent ten years on her union's negotiating team securing fair contracts. She'll demand accountability from our government, repair our roads on time, and stop the nickel and diming.

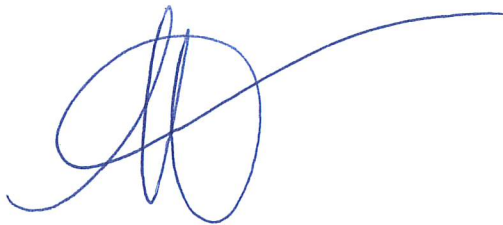

Nicole's endorsements include

- Planned Parenthood Action Fund of the Pacific Southwest
- Assemblymember Dr. Darshana Patel
