ADJOURNMENT

NOTICE
The City Council may take any action with respect to the items included on this agenda. Recommendations made by staff do not limit actions that the City Council may take. Members of the public should not rely upon the recommendations of staff as determinative of the action the city council may take on a particular matter.

INFORMATION ON HOW TO PARTICIPATE IN THIS MEETING

The City Council values public input. The information below outlines how you can address the Council on agenda items, non-agenda matters, and closed session topics, both in-person and virtually.

General Participation Rules

- Opportunity to Address Council: Members of the public will have the opportunity to address the Council.
- Time Management: The Council President may adjust speaking times to manage the meeting efficiently and ensure all agenda items are considered.
- One Comment Per Item: You may only provide one comment per agenda item.

Speaking at City Council Meetings
In-Person Comment:

- Speaker Slips: To speak in person, you must file a written request (speaker slip) with the City Clerk at the meeting. Speaker slips are only accepted on the day of the meeting, and before in-person testimony concludes on that item or comment type.
- Speaking Order: In-person testimony will conclude before virtual testimony begins and organized presentations will be taken prior to individual speakers.

Virtual Public Comment:
You have several options to join:

- Online via Zoom Webinar: Use a desktop computer, laptop, tablet, or smartphone to access the meeting at www.sandiego.gov/councilmtg
    - To Speak: If you are participating via the Zoom webinar platform, please use the "Raise Hand" icon to indicate you wish to speak when the item or comment type is introduced. When prompted, click the "Unmute" button and offer your testimony.
- By Phone: Call into the meeting using any smartphone, cellular phone, or landline. Dial 1-669 254 5252. When prompted, input ID: 160 943 0466
    - To Speak: If you are phoning in, press *9 to "raise your hand" to indicate you wish to speak. When the City Clerk calls upon you, press *6 to unmute your line and offer your testimony.

Time Limits:
All time limits are at the discretion of the Council President and may change for better meeting management.

- Closed Session: One (1) minute per item, up to a maximum of three (3) minutes if there are three or more items.
- Proclamations: One (1) minute per item, up to a maximum of three (3) minutes if there are three or more items.
- Consent Agenda: One (1) minute per item, up to a maximum of three (3) minutes if there are three or more items.
- Discussion and Information Items: Anticipated time allocations are listed with each agenda item.
- Non-Agenda Public Comment: Two (2) minutes per person, per meeting. If eight (8) or more speakers address a single issue, the maximum cumulative time for that issue will be 16 minutes.

Organized Presentations: (Formerly Known as Process for Ceding Time)
Groups of two or more people with a shared position may speak together or have a lead speaker(s) during a City Council Meeting for an allocated amount of time as part of an organized presentation.

Organized presentation requests must be submitted by the Lead Presenter 24 hours before the start of the meeting the webform (http://www.sandiego.gov/presentation).

For all regular meetings of the City Council this will be before 10:00 a.m. on Sunday for Monday meetings, and 10:00 a.m. on Monday for Tuesday meetings.

If a presentation (e.g. PowerPoint, video, audio) is to be used it may be submitted along with the sign-up form. If not submitted with the form, it must be submitted via a follow-up link at least 2 hours in advance of the meeting.

The Lead Presenter must list all individuals who are part of the organized presentation in order to determine how much time will be allotted to the presenter.

All individuals listed as part of the organized presentation must be present at the time of the group's presentation. If individuals are not present, the amount of time available to the Lead Presenter will be reduced accordingly.

All participants must attend the meeting in the same manner, either all in person or all virtual, otherwise time will be reduced accordingly. For more information on organized presentations, go to, www.sandiego.gov/participate.

Quasi-Judicial Items:
Applicant/Appellant Presentation: Immediately following the City's presentation, the Applicant (and/or Appellant) will have up to 10 minutes for an organized presentation. This time may be extended if the City's presentation exceeds 10 minutes.

Non-Agenda Public Comment
Regularly scheduled Council Meeting allow you to address the Council on matters of public interest that are not on the agenda but fall within the Council's jurisdiction. Non-Agenda Public Comment is subject to the Council President's discretion.

- Speaking Order: Generally, the order is first-come, first-served, though priority may be given to speakers who have not addressed the Council during Non-Agenda Public Comment at the last regularly scheduled meeting.
- Scheduled Times:

LATE ARRIVING MATERIALS INFORMATION,

In accordance with the Brown Act, public records related to City Council agenda items that are distributed to the majority of the City Council within 72 hours of a meeting are made available for public inspection. The City Clerk's office ensures these documents are accessible by providing them online at www.sandiego.gov/cc as an attachment to the related item and at our digital kiosk located in Council Chambers. Documents distributed during a public meeting are available for inspection at the meeting in a binder labeled "Late Arriving Materials" near the entrance of Council Chambers if prepared by the City, or after the meeting if prepared by others and posted on-line with the meeting materials.

SUMMARY AGENDAS

In an effort to promote transparency and enhance public access to City Council proceedings, a Summary Agenda has been prepared. The Summary Agenda outlines the anticipated order of business and consolidates all items to be considered into a single document. This may include items for Closed Session, the Housing Authority, and the Public Facilities Financing Authority, as well as public comment allocation times for each discussion item.

The Summary Agenda is intended to serve as a convenient guide for members of the public; however, it is not a substitute for the full agenda and accompanying official materials. The Summary Agenda is posted on Friday afternoon with any supplemental items that may be added.

The Summary Agenda is available online at: www.sandiego.gov/cc

Disclaimer: The City Clerk's office uses a software program to translate agendas to enhance public access. Translated agendas do not constitute legal notice of the meeting or items to be discussed. In case of discrepancy in the translated version, the English agenda will prevail.
