Councilmember Campillo Hosts 6th Annual Turkey Giveaway in Linda Vista Serving 150+ Residents

SAN DIEGO — Today, San Diego City Councilmember Raul Campillo hosted his 6th annual turkey giveaway in partnership with Bayside Community Center and San Diego Carpenters Local 619. The event provided free turkeys, pies, fresh produce, and nonperishable food items to 109 local families just in time for Thanksgiving. The distribution served more than 150 families, many of whom already access food and resources through Bayside Community Center each week.

"I'm incredibly thankful for being able to provide such a critical service to my community each year, especially now amidst rising inflation, ever-increasing costs, and proposed reductions to SNAP benefits," said Councilmember Raul Campillo. "Annual events like this would not be possible without the continued partnership and generosity of Bayside Community Center and San Diego Carpenters Local 619."

In 2021, Councilmember Campillo began this annual tradition to help make the holidays brighter for families in need. This year, Councilmember Campillo again teamed up with Bayside Community Center, who hosted the event and provided groceries, and San Diego Carpenters Local 619, who provided the turkeys. This continued partnership helps ensure that families who rely on Bayside for weekly support can enjoy a complete Thanksgiving meal.
