Councilmember Campillo Hosts Bulk Trash Drop Off, Saving Residents Hundreds by Collecting 5 Bins of Waste

SAN DIEGO — This weekend, San Diego City Councilmember Raul Campillo partnered with EDCO and the San Diego Food Bank to host a community bulk trash and food donation drop off event at the Tierrasanta Recreation Center. The event provided an opportunity for residents to dispose of waste that is too large for a standard trash can as well as donate nonperishable food items.

"I love being able to host events like this that help keep our communities clean, safe, and well fed," said Councilmember Raul Campillo. "These events would not be possible without our amazing partners, and I'm so grateful to EDCO and the San Diego Food Bank for helping us provide such critical services to the community on a regular basis."

The event resulted in 5 full 40-yard roll-off bins of bulk trash being properly disposed of, ultimately saving Tierrasanta residents hundreds of dollars in disposal fees. Residents also donated 71 pounds of food to the San Diego Food Bank for families in need. This is the 11th drop off event that Councilmember Campillo has hosted during his time in office.

"Thanks for putting this together," said Rob, a District 7 resident. "I was able to participate early in the morning, and it made my life easier having this available."

"Thank you for this service. I was there at 8 a.m. and left my bulk items," said Roberta, a District 7 resident. "I have been in San Diego since 1956 and in Tierrasanta since 1981. It was a nice feeling to know my city cares about me and my needs."
