Enjoy games, cookie decorating, face painting and more. A light brunch will be offered on a first-come, first-served basis. You can also get some holiday shopping done as we will be hosting local craft booths with homemade goods for purchase, so bring cash or a card.

Free event!

As a reminder, this is a family and friends' event.
No direct supervision will be provided.
There is no cost to attend this event.
Please contact (619) 516-3141 for more information.

The City of San Diego is committed to providing an equitable and inclusive environment for all individuals. Consistent with these principles and applicable laws, it is the City's policy not to discriminate on the basis of any protected classification, including age, ancestry, color, creed, physical or mental disability, gender, gender identity, gender expression, genetic information, marital status, medical condition, veteran or military status, national origin, pregnancy (including childbirth, breastfeeding, or related medical conditions), race, traits historically associated with race (including hair texture and protective hairstyles such as braids, locks, and twists), religion, religious belief or observance, religious creed, sex, sex stereotype, sexual orientation, transgender status or transitioning, or any other classification protected by federal, state, or local law (including being perceived or regarded as or associated with any protected classification). If anyone believes they have been discriminated against, they may file a complaint alleging the discrimination with either the City of San Diego, Parks and Recreation Department District Manager at (619) 525-8247, or the California Department of Fair Employment and Housing (DFEH) at (800) 884-1684.
