Office of the City Treasurer
Short-Term Residential Occupancy (STRO) Program
Human Trafficking Training Resources

The STRO Ordinance requires all Hosts to maintain proof of completion of a human trafficking awareness course prior to the initial listing of the dwelling unit for STRO (San Diego Municipal Code, section 510.0108(b)).

Listed below (in no particular order) are resources to assist Hosts in finding a human trafficking awareness course. Please note that the City of San Diego, Office of the City Treasurer is not endorsing the trainings/organizations included below, but rather providing this information as a courtesy to assist Hosts. Additionally, the links below are not inclusive of all human trafficking awareness courses available and Hosts may choose to complete a course that is not included.

- Hosting Platforms – Hosts are encouraged to check with their Hosting Platform(s) as various Hosting Platforms offer human trafficking awareness courses for their customers.
- Office of Victims of Crime – the Office of Victims of Crime, one of the six Program Offices within the Office of Justice Programs at the US Department of Justice, offers Understanding Human Trafficking training.
- American Health Training – Online Human Trafficking Awareness & Prevention Training
- Course for Human Trafficking – Human Trafficking Awareness and Prevention Class
- US Institute Against Human Trafficking – Human Trafficking 101
- Businesses Ending Slavery & Trafficking (BEST) – Inhospitable to Human Trafficking
- Trafficking Awareness – Human Trafficking Awareness Training

In addition to completing a human trafficking awareness course, all Hosts are required to:

> "post, in a conspicuous location within the dwelling unit, guidance for guests to report human trafficking based on information provided by the City Manager and educate employees or contractors of the host who may interact with guests about identifying and reporting human trafficking." San Diego Municipal Code, section 510.0107 (m)

Guidance for posting can be found here: Guidance for guests to report human trafficking

Additional Human Trafficking Awareness information can be found on the San Diego County District Attorney's webpage.
