City Hall Headlines from Councilman Kersey

Hope everyone is enjoying our first week of summer. It's not quite vacation time here at City Hall. Below, please find some news headlines reflecting the current issues.

Drilling for Water Underway in Webb Park

When a community comes together to solve a problem, rarely can they be stopped. That's just what happened when Rancho Bernardo found out Webb Lake was in danger of being drained. Community leader Scott Lawn led the charge, including securing a $10,000 District Five Community Programs, Projects and Services grant, which I was happy to provide. Now, drilling has begun and it looks like Webb Lake is here to stay. Read more...

Council O.K.s FY17 Budget

I was proud to join my Council colleagues in unanimously approving the fiscal year 2017 budget. The final budget includes $109 million for street repairs and $4.7 million to address recruitment and retention issues for police officers and 9-1-1 dispatchers. Read more...

Free Wi-Fi Hot Spots for Downtown in July

If you are planning on visiting downtown San Diego for the All Star Game festivities or Comic Con, you won't have to worry about data overages while sharing your experience on social media. Cox Communications is installing more than 100 free wi-fi hot spots downtown during the month of July. Read more...

One Paseo Project Returns to Council on June 27

The Carmel Valley area project known as One Paseo will once again be in front of City Council on Monday, June 27. This project is of importance to that community as well as those nearby which includes some of District Five. Members of the public who cannot attend Monday's meeting but wish to comment are encouraged to send their comments via email to the City Clerk at cityclerk@sandiego.gov. Read more...
