

Hello Kiah,

Having lived a long life and over 60 of them right here in the same house In Clairemont I have learned that community type meetings dealing with neighborhood issues are always a set up.. they have no intention of listening to our concerns.. ever! I finally gave up!

And by the way I agree with everything you said! It's a setup.

Freda