

Correction to my last sentence in my previous email.

I do want to see an Asian empowered district so that a representative will be voted that will keep that community and its residents' best interest in mind, but I would rather not see that as a consequence of removing UCSD and UTC from D1.

Thanks!