To The Honorable The Mayor,
and Common Council,

Gentlemen,

Petitioner is a widow with an invalid 5 year old child, Her husband is now serving time in Prison, having committed a felony in Los Angeles, Calif. she was drawing alimony before that time, but since his conviction she has not been receiving any money.

She does not run a dance hall as it would seem by her petition, but has a sandwich shop, on the Market St Extention at Euclid ave. and has a floor 16 by 18, which is used for persons who patronize her place can dance during the meal if they so desire, no extra charge for the dancing,

The regular fee for this business is $50.00 per year in advance, she is asking permission to pay this quarterly, she says she is two months behind with her rent, and that $50.00 is more than she can pay all at one time,

The recommendation of this office is that her petition be granted.

Respectfully.
