

Share Your Memories of San Diego with the Artist in Residence in Civic Center Concourse!

Artist MR Barnadas of Collective Magpie has been commissioned to create a site-specific mural for the Civic Center Public Art Project. This permanent public artwork will be located in Civic Center Concourse and will enliven the space for visitors to Civic Center Concourse and the downtown core. The mural will be located in the pedestrian walkway between the Evan Jones Parkade and the presently-vacant Downtown Johnny Brown's restaurant.

The artist will be in residence in the Civic Center Concourse from June 20-July 10th from 11 a.m. - 5 p.m., Sunday-Tuesday. She would love to meet you and hear your memories of San Diego! The artist will also have a banner located on the future mural site so you can write your memories as well.

To help with the creation of her artwork virtually, the artist invites you to share your Memories of San Diego here.

Find out more about the project here.

About the Public Art Initiative

MR Barnadas of Collective Magpie has been commissioned to design a site-specific mural from concept to completion for the wall. As part of her artistic process, which is centered on community engagement, there will be several opportunities for the public to engage with the artist which will contribute to the development of her artwork proposal.

About Arts and Culture

The City advances the economy and creative ecosystem by investing in new and artistic media, and cultural production, cultivating local participation and engagement, and advancing San Diego as a global city. Committed to equitable economic development and cultivation of a dynamic arts ecosystem, City staff facilitates the City's investments in the arts, artists, arts and culture organizations, and community-based cultural programs.