Gentlemen:

I am the attorney for Mr. William Boettcher who has been named as executor by the last will of Hattie Ada Dougherty, who died on November 3, 1958.

Mr. Boettcher has asked me to take complete charge for him in the matter of the administration of Mrs. Dougherty's estate.

I have just received a call from the Ryan Mortuary and they desired me to write to you authorizing you to open the grave for Mrs. Dougherty's interment. The purpose of this letter is to give you such authorization.

You can make your claim for services rendered against the estate direct to my office. I suppose you are familiar with the usual certified claims which must be made against estates and it will be best if you make one of those in this case.

Very truly yours,

Adolph Zuber
