13. Other unique event feature not covered above? The relocation of this event was approved in 2015 for the Expo site at 6th & Laurel South Lawn. The event original location was held at the War Memorial Lawn. We would like to continue the event location on the Westside for future years. Park and Recreation staff has received positive feedback from park activities regarding the lack of impact with the new location. The organization has also received positive feedback from their participants.
