Footnotes:

1/ Form 497 and report all previously undisclosed contributions of $100 or more.

2/ The recipient of a late in-kind contribution must file a late contribution report within 48 hours from the time the in-kind contribution is received.

3/ During the 90 days prior to the election, candidates must also file contribution reports within 24 hours of receiving contributions of $1,000 or more (due to contribution limits this filing requirement only applies to Mayor/City Attorney candidates)

4/ After the election, regardless of winning or losing, a candidate must continue to file semi-annual statements until the committee has been terminated.

5/ Every candidate that has received or made expenditures of $10,000 or more in connection with a city election shall electronically file. Those candidates under $10,000 are encouraged to e-file, but may submit by personal delivery, or first-class mail.
