“Actor Ray Buffer charged with theft after he’s accused of stealing comics”

Feb. 22, 2023

Question:

I'm with the NY Post, doing a story on the prosecution of Ray Buffer and was hoping to get the listed charges and any complaint filed against him in the case. Can you provide that information as soon as possible today? Also, is his case connected to alleged thefts from October against San Diego Comics?

Response:

The San Diego City Attorney’s Office is prosecuting Raymond Ernest Buffer Jr. He has been charged with one count of PC 484, petty theft -- a misdemeanor. He pleaded not guilty at his arraignment on Jan. 18. Mr. Buffer is scheduled for a readiness conference in San Diego Superior Court on Tuesday, Feb. 28. And yes, this case is regarding the incident that took place on 10/4/22 at Southern California Comics.

We don’t have a copy of the complaint on hand – it’s on file with the court.
