

Interactions with Los Angeles Times

“Actor Ray Buffer charged with petty theft after allegedly stealing comic books in San Diego”

Feb. 23, 2023

Question:

I'm a reporter for the Los Angeles Times, and we've seen some reports that actor Ray Buffer has been charged with stealing comic books from Southern California Comics in San Diego.

Response:

The San Diego City Attorney's Office is prosecuting Raymond Ernest Buffer Jr. He has been charged with one count of PC 484, petty theft -- a misdemeanor. He pleaded not guilty at his arraignment on Jan. 18. Mr. Buffer is scheduled for a readiness conference in San Diego Superior Court on Tuesday, Feb. 28.
