

Interactions with ABC 10 News San Diego

“Camp Pendleton Marine charged over Pacific Beach hotel assault”

Feb. 1, 2023

Question:

I recently did a story about a Camp Pendleton Marine, Sgt. Jason Frink, who was caught on camera physically/verbally assaulting two hotel workers in Pacific Beach. I read an article quoting the SD City Attorney’s office saying that charges had formally been filed against him.

Is this a case with the City Attorney’s office or District Attorney’s office? I guess I’m hoping for some clarification and what charges have been filed.

Response:

This case is with the City Attorney’s Office. Here’s the information:

Charges have been filed against Jason Frink. He is charged with PC 242, battery, and PC 240, assault. Both are misdemeanors and carry the possibility of fines and up to six months in jail, if convicted. He is scheduled to be arraigned in court on March 1, 2023.
