Council Approval of Short-Term Residential Occupancy (STRO) Proposal

SAN DIEGO, CA – San Diego Councilmember Chris Ward (District Three) issued the following statement after Council approval of an introductory framework to regulate short-term vacation rentals.

“Council’s decision today demonstrates a clear commitment to prioritizing the needs of our neighborhoods while maintaining opportunities for San Diegans to participate in – and benefit from – home-sharing and limited whole-home rentals.

“This is a starting point that will allow the City to finally form the regulatory measures necessary to address constituent concerns, provide enforcement for recurrent bad actors, and provide a structure that leaves the window open to revisit in the future once investor loopholes are addressed.”
