- Commissioner Jones, Commissioner Suero-Gabler, and Commissioner Perez will not be attending the June CEOC Meeting.
- Staff stated that the Commission could propose dates for the Annual Retreat however, it may need to be titled a special meeting and be vetted by the City Attorneys' Office to ensure compliance with the Brown Act.

DISCUSSION ITEMS: (5C) Disparity Study Recommendation Update

- Chair Warner testified before the Budget and Efficiency Committee on April 6, 2016.
- Chair Warner stated that the Mayor and Council are looking to add positions to the Contracting Department.
- Commissioner Jefferson stated that during Chair Warner's presentation to Committee, Councilman Todd Gloria and 4-5 other Councilmembers made the disparity study a priority on his wish list as a FY17 City budget line item.

- Chair Warner stated that Council questioned the cost of the disparity study and are under the impression that it will cost approximately $1-$1.5 million.
- Chair Warner stated that she has conducted additional research with the consultant that did the SANDAG disparity study. The consultant indicated that their firm has only done one disparity study that costs more than $845K, which involved an entire state and multiple cities.
- Staff noted that at the Budget and Government Efficiency Committee Meeting held on 04/06/2016, staff commented that it is anticipated that the disparity study will cost approximately $1 million and would follow SANDAG's two-phased model. Phase 1 of the study is anticipated to cost $400 - $500K. The second phase will be approximately $500K and would be utilized on an as-needed basis.
- Chair Warner encouraged Commissioners to attend the May 9th Budget review as EOCP will be presenting. Staff clarified that the Purchasing & Contracting Department will be presenting at the Budget Review Committee Meeting however, EOC staff will be present to address any questions from Committee.
- Chair Warner stated that during Ms. Rosalind Winstead's presentation at the Budget and Efficiency Meeting, Ms. Winstead mentioned a module that was intended to be added to the SAP system that would track EO information. Chair Warner asked what the cost of that module is. Staff indicated that they would research the appropriate department to address the Commission's question regarding SAP.
- Chair Warner stated that she visited the State Attorney General website and one of the State Attorney General functions is to assist local attorneys on how to understand and interpret the law.

DISCUSSION ITEMS: (5D) City Attorneys' Legal Review of the Municipal Code to add Woman and Disabled Veterans to Section 26.16(b) and the legal review of currently listed groups represented on the Commission
