Manifesto for the Heart of San Diego: Appendix 1

Authored by the Civic Center Revitalization Committee Design Roundtable

QUESTIONS

Your opinion matters! Please answer the following questions to the best of your ability.

1. What is the likely future of downtown and the redevelopment of the Civic Center?
2. Which aspects of the existing Civic Center do you wish to maintain? Which aspects should be altered?
3. Do you feel that you have access to participation in community decision-making? Is this access equal for all people? If not, why not?

4. What issues in downtown San Diego require collaboration among non-profits? What collaborations already exist?

5. What issues should be addressed regionally?

6. How do local governments: the City of San Diego, San Diego County, MTS, SANDAG, Airport Authority, and the Port Commission work together on regional issues?

7. If the very best quality of life existed in downtown neighborhoods, what would be happening?

8. In this desired future: what common values exist across all perspectives in the community?

9. In this desired future: how are people interacting with each other?

10. What is unique to our downtown San Diego that no other city has? What does it look like 20 years from now?
