Mr. K. O. Grubb
City Clerk
Santa Monica, California

Dear Sir:

We have your letter of June 16, 1950, asking about clothing worn by people in public places other than at the beach, and whether or not the City of San Diego has in effect or is proposing any ordinance regulating the wearing of bathing or sun suits.

The City of San Diego has no ordinance regulating clothing worn in public places other than at the beach. We do have an ordinance on bathing suits, however, numbered 13548, a copy of which is enclosed.

Very truly yours,

FRED W. SICK,
City Clerk
