Councilmember Barbara Bry Announces District 1 Community Advisory Boards

Bry will convene three separate community groups focused on public safety, small business, and seniors to gain input on critical community issues.

San Diego—As a high-tech entrepreneur, Bry will use the District 1 Community Advisory Boards to crowdsource valuable input on key issues from community members.

The meetings were advertised broadly throughout District 1 and will be open to the public. Bry will convene the groups on a quarterly basis.

“Maintaining open lines of communication with District 1 constituents and tapping into their expertise on important issues is a priority for my office,” said Councilmember Bry. “These boards will provide an opportunity for me to learn about what is happening on the ground in my District and the ways that I can most effectively advocate for improved neighborhood safety, thriving local businesses, and an enhanced quality of life for San Diego seniors.”
