

Consumer Protection Day

Dollars & Sense: Tips for Teens & Adults

Presented by:

Saturday, March 13
9:30am – 2:30pm
Scottish Rite Event Center

Consumer Protection Day offers free consumer resources for every stage of life—from high school to retirement. The one-day event features panels and individual speakers presenting valuable information on the following topics:

- Financial Planning and Literacy – including how to manage & use credit and avoid debt, how to make major purchases, such as a car or home, student loan info and more
- How to Protect Yourself Against Scams and Fraud - including employment/job scams, education/student loans scams, and Real Estate scams
- Cyber-Security – including what you should know about Cyberspace (ebay, facebook, Twitter, craigslist, etc)

Whether you're in the Military, a young adult, parent or senior, this free event is dedicated to help you fight back against fraud, identity theft and data security. Take advantage of our free resources and take the first step in protecting your privacy, money, and identity.

- Free Admission
- Free Parking
- Raffle Giveaways (for iTunes gift cards & more)
- Plus, learn what it takes to work in these agencies

Over 35 local government, law enforcement and regulatory agency exhibitors!

The San Diego City Attorney's Office, District Attorney's Office, and your San Diego Better Business Bureau present this FREE consumer protection event designed to educate the public on cyber-security, financial planning and literacy, as well as protecting themselves from scams and fraud and identity theft.

The March 13th event will host over 35 local government, law enforcement and regulatory agency exhibitors, including

- FBI
- Department of Consumer Affairs
- FDA
- County Bar, State Bar
- Police, Sheriffs
- Department of Motor Vehicles
- Department of Insurance
- Department of Real Estate
- Attorney General's Office
- and more!