About the Owners, Developers, and Entrepreneurs Advocacy Subcommittee

We are a committee under the Downtown Community Planning Council, an official advisor to the San Diego City Council and Planning Department on land use in Downtown.

The committee is composed of business owners, developers, and realtors who aim to streamline processes that hinder Downtown's development & vibrancy. Meetings are open to the public and those involved in business & development in Downtown are encouraged to attend. For questions please contact us at dcpcsd.tech@gmail.com.
