

This ten hour class will introduce you to canine decoy work. You will learn the proper nomenclature of frequently used Canine training techniques. You will be introduced to civil agitation, muzzle work, bite sleeves and full bite suits. This class will teach basics of how to read dogs and work them into prey / defense drives. During the course, you will take bites wearing a variety of training equipment.

You must be full duty with no medical restrictions to attend this course. This course must be attended in 11-86 status. This class will be physically demanding, appropriate attire is necessary.