July 2019

This information bulletin explains the process and fees associated with mechanical, electrical, and plumbing (MEP) permits. Separate building and MEP permits are required for all non-residential and Multi-Dwelling Unit (MDU) construction. Each building must have its own MEP permit.

Electrical permits are required for all electrical work except as exempted in SDMC Section 129.0303 of the Land Development Code. Mechanical and plumbing permits are required for all mechanical and plumbing work except as exempted in SDMC Section 129.0403 and 129.0404 of the Land Development Code.

Plumbing and Mechanical equipment, including water heaters, washing machines, air conditioner units, and pool equipment shall not be installed in required side or rear yards of Residential Zones unless they comply with SDMC Section 131.0461(a)(5).

I. REQUIRED DOCUMENTS AND OUTSIDE REVIEWS

A. General Application

A General Application form (DS-3032) must be completed for all projects.

B. Owner-Builder Form

If the property owner is doing the work or is hiring different contractors, a separate Owner-Builder Verification form (DS-3042) must be signed by the owner before the permit can be issued.

B. Circuit Card

A completed and signed City of San Diego Electrical Circuit Card (DS-1779) is required at the time of inspection of any electrical components or systems added to a single dwelling unit or duplex; unless electrical plans, calculations or single-line drawings are included in the approved plans.

C. HERS Rating

When a HERS rating is required, a HERS rater shall provide the test for which the rating is required, and provide a report to the owner or contractor. This certificate is required to obtain final inspection approval. The companies or individuals providing HERS testing, shall be certified. A list of the certified companies is available here.

D. Historical Review

If your site contains a designated historical resource or is located in a historic district, plans will be required for review. Refer to Information Bulletin 581, Designated Historical Resource Review.

E. Address Review

If an address has not been assigned, a site plan and an addressing review will be required. An additional $81.77 fee may be assessed for assigning an address.

F. Food Establishment Waste Water Discharge (FEWD) Review

All new or replacement Grease Trap/Interceptors require an approval from Public Utilities Department. Refer to Public Utilities website.

II. OPTIONS FOR SERVICE

A. Online Simple Permits - MEP - Items in the following tables that qualify for Simple Permits—MEP do not require plan review and can apply for permits online, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Visit our website for further information and to apply online for Simple Permits - MEP. Note that historical designated resources and projects in historic districts do not qualify for Simple Permits—MEP and must be submitted at the Development Services Center.

If a project scope includes items that need plan review along with items that qualify for Simple Permits—MEP, all items must be included in the permit scope to be plan reviewed and the project does not qualify for Simple Permits– MEP.

B. In Person

1. Permits requiring plans and projects qualified for Simple Permits - MEP can be submitted at Development Services Center.
2. Simple Permits - MEP can also be submitted at Inspection Services Office, 9601 Ridgehaven Court, Suite 220.

III. FEES

A. Records Fee

This fee is assessed for all projects at issuance to recover the cost of imaging and archiving the documents in Records. If more than one approval is being issued under the same project at the same time, this fee will be charged once.

Records Fee - No Plan Permit$20

B. Plan Check/Inspection Fee

Items identified, on the fee schedules, as requiring plans for non-residential and MDU construction (3 or more units) will be reviewed prior to issuance of a permit. In most cases, the plan review occurs as part of a building permit application and the inspection fees are assessed at that time. If a plan review is required and one was not conducted as part of a building permit application, plans will be required and a plan review fee will be charged per Information Bulletin 501, in addition to the inspection fees per the fee schedule. Please note that plan check, inspection and records fees are non-refundable. See Refund Policy noted within Refund Application Form DS-721 for additional refund information.
