12th College Neighborhoods Home Tour “Courtyards, Canyons, & Classics”

Peek over the fences & behind the doors into six lovely homes in the College Neighborhoods.

The College Neighborhoods Foundation (CNF) is proud to coordinate the 12th College

Neighborhoods Home Tour on April 6, 2013 featuring the community of El Cerrito.

This year's tour celebrates the southern California indoor/outdoor suburban lifestyle.

The homeowner participants graciously open their homes and gardens for one day only to allow guests to view colorful landscapes, outstanding décors, faithful preservations or elegant remodels.

12th College Neighborhoods Home Tour - El Cerrito

Saturday, April 6th 10am — 2pm

CollegeNeighborhoods.com

Tour Information

The Home Tour is self-guided. Included with admission is a program packed with historical, architectural, and design highlights. Ticket holders may walk or drive from home to home. (The tour includes stairs and uneven surfaces.)

Ticket sales are limited and have sold out in years past. This is a one day only event. We encourage early ticket purchase to ensure availability.

Special Pre-Tour Event!

Tour of all dwellings Friday evening, plus one additional home, with guided discussion of each dwelling, a full color program, a chance to meet the owners/occupants, a free ticket to the Saturday tour, and an after-tour party with heavy hors d'oeuvres. Tour starts promptly at 6:30 pm.

College Neighborhoods Foundation (CNF)

The College Neighborhoods Foundation's (CNF) all-volunteer board plans the Home Tour and other community activities.

CNF's mission is: to help enhance the quality of life and revitalize business in the College Neighborhoods.

The Home Tour is designed to increase community pride in, and awareness of, the College Neighborhoods.
