

San Diego County

LISTENING SESSIONS ON GUN VIOLENCE

The County of San Diego is hosting 6 community listening sessions to gather community feedback on gun violence.

Please join us at one of these listening sessions to share your thoughts and views and to learn about the County's regional gun violence reduction project.

Virtual Community Listening Session in November

November
16

Zoom Link: <https://tinyurl.com/GVRLS1>

Time: 6:00pm - 8:00pm

In-Person Community Listening Sessions in November

November
17

Location: Jackie Robinson Family YMCA (InterGen room)

151 YMCA Way, San Diego, CA 92102

Time: 6:00pm - 8:00pm

November
28

Location: Remnant Church (Cafeteria room)

3060 54th Street, San Diego, CA 92105

Time: 6:00pm - 8:00pm

The listening sessions will be conducted by HARC (Health Assessment and Research for Communities), a local research non-profit, on behalf of the County of San Diego. If you have any questions or need language translation services at one of these events, please contact HARC at ARamos@HARCdata.org.

For general information, please visit
<https://harcdata.org/client-projects/>

To receive project updates, please visit https://www.sandiegocounty.gov/content/sdc/public_safety/gun-violence-reduction-project/

