

Interactive Workshop

Discontinued Harmful Uses & Anti-Displacement Measures

The City of San Diego Planning Department invites you to a City-wide community workshop. Join us for an opportunity to learn about upcoming proposals on Discontinued Harmful Uses & Anti-Displacement Measures.

Community participants will engage the topics through multiple stations designed to offer opportunities for learning, discussion, and input. We'll provide refreshments and a hospitable space as we work together toward affordable "Homes for All of Us".

Date: Monday, March 13, 6:30pm

Location: Valencia Park/Malcolm X Library, 5148 Market St, San Diego, CA 92114

Parking: Limited parking is available at the library or take the Trolley Orange Line to the Euclid Station stop.

Spanish interpretation and light refreshments will be provided.

Recommended age 13+. Options for drawing, simple crafts, and games for younger children will be provided.
