at 6pm

Valencia Park/Malcolm X Library
5148 Market Street
San Diego, CA 92114

One of the most acclaimed films of the year and an Oscar nominee for Best Documentary, I Am Not Your Negro envisions the book James Baldwin never finished. The result is a radical, up-to-the-minute examination of race in America, using Baldwin's original words, spoken by Samuel L. Jackson, and with a flood of rich archival material.

Tell Them We Are Rising: The Story of Black Colleges and Universities

by Stanley Nelson & Marco Williams

Wednesday, February 7, 2018
at 6pm

Valencia Park/Malcolm X Library
5148 Market Street
San Diego, CA 92114

Tell Them We Are Rising explores the pivotal role historically black colleges and universities (HBCUs) have played over the course of 150 years in American history, culture, and identity. This film reveals the rich history of HBCUs and the power of higher education to transform lives and advance civil rights and equality in the face of injustice.

Dolores

by Peter Bratt

Wednesday, March 21, 2018
at 6pm

Valencia Park/Malcolm X Library
5148 Market Street
San Diego, CA 92114

With intimate and unprecedented access, Peter Bratt's Dolores tells the story of Dolores Huerta, among the most important, yet least-known, activists in American history. Co-founder of the first farmworkers union with Cesar Chavez, she tirelessly led the fight for racial and labor justice, becoming one of the most defiant feminists of the 20th century.
