

District 6 Dispatch | July 2018

SORRENTO VALLEY: Innovative Commercial Environments plans and fabricates furniture that encourages a company to connect, play, and solve problems together. Welcome to D6!

RANCHO PEÑASQUITOS: The Canyonside Recreation Center hosted the City of San Diego's Parks Master Plan Workshop on June 20th. More than 50 people attended helping to create the parks and recreation system of tomorrow.

CLAIREMONT: More than thirty residents attended our "Meet the Chief" event that we held at the Clairemont Senior Center on June 26th. Topics discussed included neighborhood watch, community policing, and hiring new police officers.

KEARNY MESA: I kicked off the San Diego Night Market with the Convoy District on June 23rd. 20,000 attendees partook in the culturally rich extravaganza.

MIRA MESA: On June 27th, I "flipped the switch" on Phase 3 of District 6's largest contiguous smart stoplight system. From Schilling Avenue to Camino Ruiz, six intersections along 1.4 miles of Mira Mesa Boulevard were outfitted with smart stoplights.
