KEARNY MESA TO REVIVE PROGRAM THAT HAS BEEN DORMANT FOR OVER 30 YEARS
Councilmember Cate to install 8 new Neighborhood Watch signs to bolster crime prevention program

San Diego, CA: On Friday, July 28, 2017 at 12:00 p.m., Councilmember Chris Cate and officers of the San Diego Police Department's Eastern Division will install eight (8) new Neighborhood Watch signs in the Kearny Mesa neighborhood of Royal Highlands.

Kearny Mesa is a major industrial and commercial center occupying a central location in America's Finest City. The community meets employment, business, and retail needs for a large portion of the city. Kearny Mesa is home to more than 2,800 individuals.

"Neighborhood Watch programs are one of the most effective crime prevention programs in the nation. Together, we can reduce crime, solve problems, and improve the quality of life. To date, we have established more than 50 Neighborhood Watch groups in District 6," stated Councilmember Chris Cate.

"Neighborhood Watch brings neighborhoods together and establishes partnerships with police to combat crime," said Officer Tom Bostedt of the San Diego Police Department.
