Narrative Questions

Please attach this cover sheet to your answers to the following questions. There is no page limit to this report.

1. To what extent did you meet the measurable objectives identified in your Exhibit A?
Please refer to the Exhibit A of your contract in which you identified your goals and measurable objectives. On a separate sheet (or sheets) of paper, please identify each measurable objective as set forth in your Exhibit A followed by a brief description of the extent to which that objective was accomplished. If you exceeded or fell short of your projection for any of the objectives, please explain.
2. Other than the objectives set forth in the Exhibit A, what other significant accomplishments did your organization achieve during the reporting period?
3. If your event experienced a surplus, please tell us how you will use the surplus to improve the neighborhood or community you serve. If your event experienced a deficit, please explain how it will affect your organization's financial position.
4. Are there new challenges or opportunities that you experienced this year that may require significant attention, resources or organizational effort in the coming year?
5. Please list any significant changes in your project's volunteer leadership, staff, or venue during the past year.
6. Based on your experiences to date, what have been the strengths of the Creative Communities San Diego program?
7. What have been the weaknesses of the Creative Communities San Diego program?
8. What suggestions for improvement do you have?
9. How can the Commission better serve your organization?

This Final Performance Report is due within 90 days of the completion of your fiscal year or September 30, whichever comes first. Failure to submit a complete Final Performance Report on times disqualifies an organization from submitting a short form application for the following year (if otherwise eligible) and may result in disqualification of a subsequent application for funding.
