25 clients. Townspeople also completed 268 case management appointments and 41 job development appointments. The City's HPRP program also made a connection with the San Diego Housing Commission's Achievement Academy. This connection enabled the referrals of HPRP clients to the resources at the Academy, which include resume writing assistance, job referrals, computer classes, and other career development activities. Regarding ongoing quarterly reporting, in past quarters the City of San Diego has reported the amount of payments to vendors of subrecipients. According to Federal reporting guidance, payment amount is optional reporting data for vendors of subrecipients. Due to the large volume of vendor payments by the City of San Diego's subrecipients and reporting time constraints, the City of San Diego will no longer report the amount of payments to vendors of subrecipients through FederalReporting.Gov.
