It is with pleasure that I appoint Raylene Brundage to the Relocation Appeals Board, subject to your confirmation.

From 1973-1988, Ms. Brundage served in progressively responsible positions for USAir/Pacific Southwest Airlines including Manager of Reservation Sales, Manager of Reservation Systems, Supervisor of Production Control and Reservation Sales Agent. Ms. Brundage later served as the Director of Reservations/Customer Service for CALMARK Hospitality Systems from 1989-1991. From 1991-1995, Ms. Brundage worked for the Union Tribune as Manager of Telephone Sales in the Classified Advertising Division and also participated with the Children's Initiative. She has also participated in various Association committees including the Housing Opportunity, Government Affairs, and Grievance committees.

Ms. Brundage is also passionate about serving the community. As President of a homeowners association in the Scripps Ranch community, Ms. Brundage helped in the effort to support residents and families who lost their homes during the 2003 Cedar Fire, and worked tirelessly with city officials, homeowners, and the community to assist in the rebuilding efforts.

Ms. Brundage was nominated by Councilmember Kevin Faulconer. She will replace Karen Bucey, for a term expiring October 1, 2011. Ms. Brundage resides in Scripps Ranch.
