

CITY OF SAN DIEGO
Member of the City Council – 4th District

MYRTLE COLE
Former Police Lieutenant
Senior Care Advocate

MAYOR BOB FILNER, CONGRESSMAN JUAN VARGAS, SAN DIEGO FIRE FIGHTERS,

Former Senator Christine Kehoe, State Senator Ben Hueso,
Assembly Majority Leader Toni Atkins, Assemblymember Shirley Weber,
Councilmember David Alvarez, School Board Member Richard Barrera, American Federation of Teachers support

MYRTLE COLE.

11 years as a Police Officer.

Starting as a Tucson police officer, Myrtle moved to San Diego, joined the SDCCD Police Department and rose to the rank of lieutenant.

Solving Neighborhood Problems.

Myrtle helped bring Community Oriented Policing to our neighborhoods. "I organized Neighborhood Watch programs, targeted drug houses for demolition, and started Gang Prevention programs to keep young people off the streets."

20+ Years in the Community.

Working for the City, Myrtle pushed to improve services, increase affordable housing and improve access to City Hall.

Myrtle knows every neighborhood. She will hit the ground running Day One.

A Program of Community Progress.

- Pave streets. Repair potholes.
- Fix/Install sidewalks.
- Eradicate graffiti.
- Tow abandoned cars.
- Fully fund police and fire departments.

Our community will soar!

- Realize Gaslamp East dream. Quality shopping/entertainment in our community.
- Work with business/labor to create good jobs.
- Increase After-School programs.

Myrtle Cole
Standing Up for Our Neighborhoods

CITY OF SAN DIEGO
Member of the City Council – 4th District

DWAYNE CRENSHAW
Community Nonprofit Leader/Educator

Dwayne Crenshaw is a 37-year District Four resident and neighborhood leader. He has a record of results fighting for jobs, education and safety in our community.

JOBS

- Leader in building Market Creek Plaza - bringing more than 2,500 jobs and businesses like Food-4-Less and Starbucks
- Fought for Hire-A-Youth funding for southeastern San Diego – creating 223 youth jobs
- Created neighborhood jobs programs bringing nearly $3 million to assist hundreds of gang-affiliated, dropout and at-risk youth

EDUCATION

A former teacher, Dwayne knows the importance of quality education for children.

- Successfully led the fight to keep Millennial Tech Middle School in District Four
- Created program at Morse High to help struggling students stay in school
- Served on Lincoln High Community Advisory Board
- SDSU and California Western Law School graduate

SAFETY

- Led the Coalition of Neighborhood Councils where police and residents strengthened relationships to reduce crime
- Raised over $1 million for Safe Routes to School and to fight for sidewalks and streetlights to improve neighborhood safety
- Procured millions to restore Chollas Creek and make it safer by cleaning up crime, trash and homeless camps

Please vote Dwayne Crenshaw -- A Neighborhood Fighter for All of Us!

www.DwayneCrenshaw.org