Dear Members of the City Council,

As you know, the controversial One Paseo project has been vigorously debated in the community for the past several years. Thousands of local residents and tens of thousands of San Diegans have raised serious concerns about the project. Four community planning boards rejected One Paseo and now more are speaking out about the dangerous precedent its approval set for development in the City.

By ignoring the Carmel Valley, Del Mar Mesa, Torrey Pines and Torrey Hills community planning boards, the City Council sent a message that the feedback from planning groups has a negligible impact on land use decisions, and thus community planning groups have no important role to play in future development of their neighborhoods. I could not disagree more.

In a few weeks, the City Council will have the opportunity to reconsider the project, and I respectfully request that you give that reconsideration the time and attention it deserves.

If, after careful consideration, you are still unwilling to rescind the City Council's decision, and the Council instead elects to place the issue on the ballot, I ask that you ensure it is fairly scheduled for the June 2016 Primary Election, not a special election paid for by Kilroy Realty.

Sincerely,

Dear Members of the City Council,

Critical Drought conditions should be enough to halt building such a massive project. We're suppose to cut our usage during these times. What about you & Kilroy cutting back. Think of all those additional sinks, toilets and sewage. Where is that water coming from?

Stop wearing us down and just put an end to it.

Dear Council Members,

As a supporter of the One Paseo project in Carmel Valley, I am deeply disappointed that after nearly seven years of careful consideration, this important local investment in the community will be further delayed by the deceptive tactics of Donahue Schriber, the well-funded owner of the Del Mar Highlands Town Center. In its backing of the referendum, Donahue Schriber has conducted a shameful campaign against this Council's thoughtful, bi-partisan, super-majority approval of One Paseo. Now that the issue has qualified to come back before you, I urge you to hold firm in your position of support and allow a public vote on this issue. Rewarding the opponents' bullying behavior by overturning your approval will simply make a mockery of our planning process and our business climate in San Diego. Please allow the voters of San Diego to have the last word.

I appreciate your careful consideration and leadership.

Sincerely,

Dear Members of the City Council,

As you know, the controversial One Paseo project has been vigorously debated in the community for the past several years. Thousands of local residents and tens of thousands of San Diegans have raised serious concerns about the project. Four community planning boards rejected One Paseo and now more are speaking out about the dangerous precedent its approval set for development in the City.

By ignoring the Carmel Valley, Del Mar Mesa, Torrey Pines and Torrey Hills community planning boards, the City Council sent a message that the feedback from planning groups has a negligible impact on land use decisions, and thus community planning groups have no important role to play in future development of their neighborhoods. I could not disagree more.

In a few weeks, the City Council will have the opportunity to reconsider the project, and I respectfully request that you give that reconsideration the time and attention it deserves.

If, after careful consideration, you are still unwilling to rescind the City Council's decision, and the Council instead elects to place the issue on the ballot, I ask that you ensure it is fairly scheduled for the June 2016 Primary Election, not a special election paid for by Kilroy Realty.

Dear Council Members,

WHAT IS THE ROLL OF COMMUNITY PLANNING BOARDS AND DO THEY REALLY REPRESENT THE VIEWS OF THE COMMUNITY???

With all the controversy surrounding the fact that One Paseo was NOT approved by the local planning board, but WAS approved by the San Diego City Council, it is time to really examine the role and purpose of the local planning boards in our communities.

As a long time resident of Carmel Valley I do not recall ever voting for any representatives to our planning board. There was no community wide election as is the case when a member of the San Diego City Council is seated. There were recently some vacancies on the Carmel Valley Planning Board and as far as I could see a few community members volunteered to fill these vacancies. It is commendable that these community residents volunteer their time to serve on these committees. As of recent the volunteer committee members in Carmel Valley were confirmed by what seemed to be an election of just a couple of votes cast, and as such these committee members only represent their own views which do not necessarily coincide with the views of their community.

I question why these planning groups seem to believe they have so much power and are now signing resolutions objecting to their decisions being overturned by the San Diego City Council. Community Planning groups serve a purpose in bringing up issues to the community when reviewing new developments prior to City governmental actions. We need to understand that these groups are only advisory and do not necessarily represent the desires of the entire community.

Perhaps we need to look at having community wide elections to vote for our local community planning group representatives. Otherwise, we should keep these groups as originally intended, as advisory only.

(The above letter was forwarded to the San Diego Union Tribune and to the North Coast Times; please consider this information when standing by your decision on One Paseo. Thanks!).

Sincerely,
Linda Katzman

By ignoring the Carmel Valley, Del Mar Mesa, Torrey Pines and Torrey Hills community planning boards, the City Council sent a message that the feedback from planning groups has a negligible impact on land use decisions, and thus community planning groups have no important role to play in future development of their neighborhoods. I could not disagree more.

In a few weeks, the City Council will have the opportunity to reconsider the project, and I respectfully request that you give that reconsideration the time and attention it deserves.

If, after careful consideration, you are still unwilling to rescind the City Council's decision, and the Council instead elects to place the issue on the ballot, I ask that you ensure it is fairly scheduled for the June 2016 Primary Election, not a special election paid for by Kilroy Realty.

Dear Members of the City Council,

As you know, the controversial One Paseo project has been vigorously debated in the community for the past several years. Thousands of local residents and tens of thousands of San Diegans have raised serious concerns about the project. Four community planning boards rejected One Paseo and now more are speaking out about the dangerous precedent its approval set for development in the City.

Dear Members of the City Council,

As you know, the controversial One Paseo project has been vigorously debated in the community for the past several years. Thousands of local residents and tens of thousands of San Diegans have raised serious concerns about the project. Four community planning boards rejected One Paseo and now more are speaking out about the dangerous precedent its approval set for development in the City.

By ignoring the Carmel Valley, Del Mar Mesa, Torrey Pines and Torrey Hills community planning boards, the City Council sent a message that the feedback from planning groups has a negligible impact on land use decisions, and thus community planning groups have no important role to play in future development of their neighborhoods. I could not disagree more.

In a few weeks, the City Council will have the opportunity to reconsider the project, and I respectfully request that you give that reconsideration the time and attention it deserves.

If, after careful consideration, you are still unwilling to rescind the City Council's decision, and the Council instead elects to place the issue on the ballot, I ask that you ensure it is fairly scheduled for the June 2016 Primary Election, not a special election paid for by Kilroy Realty.

Sincerely,

Dear Members of the City Council,

I know this is a form letter, so I will start by telling you my personal concerns about One Paseo. First of all, more cars is more pollution, no matter how you route the traffic. As a user of public transport, this lack of bus or train service will impact our neighborhoods with more bad air. And, now that we have a drought, I am not sure where we plan to get the water we would need for this project.
