Dear Members of the City Council,

As you know, the controversial One Paseo project has been vigorously debated in the community for the past several years. Thousands of local residents and tens of thousands of San Diegans have raised serious concerns about the project. Four community planning boards rejected One Paseo and now more are speaking out about the dangerous precedent its approval set for development in the City.

By ignoring the Carmel Valley, Del Mar Mesa, Torrey Pines and Torrey Hills community planning boards, the City Council sent a message that the feedback from planning groups has a negligible impact on land use decisions, and thus community planning groups have no important role to play in future development of their neighborhoods. I could not disagree more.

In a few weeks, the City Council may have the opportunity to reconsider the project, and I respectfully request that you give that reconsideration the time and attention it deserves.

If, after careful consideration, you are still unwilling to rescind the City Council's decision, and the Council instead elects to place the issue on the ballot, I ask that you ensure it is fairly scheduled for the June 2016 Primary Election, not a special election paid for by Kilroy Realty.

Dear Members of the City Council,

There are many reason why Paseo One is wrong for Del Mar - safety, traffic congestion, misplaced residential space ostensibly for homes in a desert of commerce, aesthetics, cultural change and turmoil for the local residents whose homes will effectively be transported to the rabbit warren east of UTC.

But perhaps the most serious is how the citizens of San Diego will lose any semblance of respect for elected officials who are clearly thwarting the intent and letter of the planning process in the name of commerce. Personally, I am deeply frustrated with how you have ignored master planning, ignored local planning, and ignored the appeals of the people who live in the area to be impacted by Paseo One. For what goal? More taxes perhaps? The appearance of wealth creation for the developers? The opportunity to claim you have brought progress? Believe me, in the neighborhood that knows about Paseo One you all will have a reputation on a par with C Arnold Smith!

Please reconsider your obligation to the people of San Diego who now live in fear that the character of their neighborhood can be dramatically changed with a stroke of a pen. Imagine the wealth lost by the property owners as Carmel Valley around El Camino becomes suitable residence only for single students and the aged.

Dear Members of the City Council,

As you know, the controversial One Paseo project has been vigorously debated in the community for the past several years. Thousands of local residents and tens of thousands of San Diegans have raised serious concerns about the project. Four community planning boards rejected One Paseo and now more are speaking out about the dangerous precedent its approval set for development in the City.

By ignoring the Carmel Valley, Del Mar Mesa, Torrey Pines and Torrey Hills community planning boards, the City Council sent a message that the feedback from planning groups has a negligible impact on land use decisions, and thus community planning groups have no important role to play in future development of their neighborhoods. I could not disagree more.

In a few weeks, the City Council may have the opportunity to reconsider the project, and I respectfully request that you give that reconsideration the time and attention it deserves.

Dear Members of the City Council,

Please reconsider One Paseo. So many of us don't want it - it breaks zoning rules, I don't want Del Mar Heights Road made any bigger and traffic getting any worse, and I don't want the congestion. We have enough people and cars here as it is. There's enough trouble finding parking at Town Center. An influx of hundreds upon hundreds of people living, working, and shopping at One Paseo would ruin the balance we have such as it is. We like our neighborhood the way it is. We don't want the crowding and huge developments. We live two blocks away from the site. If this goes through, we will move (we'll have to!) and never patronize One Paseo. Use the space for something good for the community, not moneymaking.

I could not disagree more.

In a few weeks, the City Council may have the opportunity to reconsider the project, and I respectfully request that you give that reconsideration the time and attention it deserves.

If, after careful consideration, you are still unwilling to rescind the City Council's decision, and the Council instead elects to place the issue on the ballot, I ask that you ensure it is fairly scheduled for the June 2016 Primary Election, not a special election paid for by Kilroy Realty.

Dear Members of the City Council,

As you know, the controversial One Paseo project has been vigorously debated in the community for the past several years. Thousands of local residents and tens of thousands of San Diegans have raised serious concerns about the project. Four community planning boards rejected One Paseo and now more are speaking out about the dangerous precedent its approval set for development in the City.

By ignoring the Carmel Valley, Del Mar Mesa, Torrey Pines and Torrey Hills community planning boards, the City Council sent a message that the feedback from planning groups has a negligible impact on land use decisions, and thus community planning groups have no important role to play in future development of their neighborhoods. I could not disagree more.

In a few weeks, the City Council may have the opportunity to reconsider the project, and I respectfully request that you give that reconsideration the time and attention it deserves.

Dear Members of the City Council,

As you know, the controversial One Paseo project has been vigorously debated in the community for the past several years. Thousands of local residents and tens of thousands of San Diegans have raised serious concerns about the project. Four community planning boards rejected One Paseo and now more are speaking out about the dangerous precedent its approval set for development in the City.

By ignoring the Carmel Valley, Del Mar Mesa, Torrey Pines and Torrey Hills community planning boards, the City Council sent a message that the feedback from planning groups has a negligible impact on land use decisions, and thus community planning groups have no important role to play in future development of their neighborhoods. I could not disagree more.

In a few weeks, the City Council may have the opportunity to reconsider the project, and I respectfully request that you give that reconsideration the time and attention it deserves.

If, after careful consideration, you are still unwilling to rescind the City Council's decision, and the Council instead elects to place the issue on the ballot, I ask that you ensure it is fairly scheduled for the June 2016 Primary Election, not a special election paid for by Kilroy Realty.

Sincerely,

Max Metz
