Dear Members of the City Council,

As you know, the controversial One Paseo project has been vigorously debated in the community for the past several years. Thousands of local residents and tens of thousands of San Diegans have raised serious concerns about the project. Four community planning boards rejected One Paseo and now more are speaking out about the dangerous precedent its approval set for development in the City.

By ignoring the Carmel Valley, Del Mar Mesa, Torrey Pines and Torrey Hills community planning boards, the City Council sent a message that the feedback from planning groups has a negligible impact on land use decisions, and thus community planning groups have no important role to play in future development of their neighborhoods. I could not disagree more.

In a few weeks, the City Council may have the opportunity to reconsider the project, and I respectfully request that you give that reconsideration the time and attention it deserves.

If, after careful consideration, you are still unwilling to rescind the City Council's decision, and the Council instead elects to place the issue on the ballot, I ask that you ensure it is fairly scheduled for the June 2016 Primary Election, not a special election paid for by Kilroy Realty.

Sincerely,

I also find it very troubling that an original no vote can be changed to a yes vote after the developer offers almost nothing to the community. So this begs the question of what was offered to those members that changed their vote from a no to a yes. Hopefully time will reveal this and the consequence that is deserved.

Dear Members of the City Council,

As you know, the controversial One Paseo project has been vigorously debated in the community for the past several years. Thousands of local residents and tens of thousands of San Diegans have raised serious concerns about the project. Four community planning boards rejected One Paseo and now more are speaking out about the dangerous precedent its approval set for development in the City.

By ignoring the Carmel Valley, Del Mar Mesa, Torrey Pines and Torrey Hills community planning boards, the City Council sent a message that the feedback from planning groups has a negligible impact on land use decisions, and thus community planning groups have no important role to play in future development of their neighborhoods. I could not disagree more.

In a few weeks, the City Council may have the opportunity to reconsider the project, and I respectfully request that you give that reconsideration the time and attention it deserves.

If, after careful consideration, you are still unwilling to rescind the City Council's decision, and the Council instead elects to place the issue on the ballot, I ask that you ensure it is fairly scheduled for the June 2016 Primary Election, not a special election paid for by Kilroy Realty.

Dear Members of the City Council,

I would like to be as clear as possible about this...

I live in Pacific Highlands Ranch section of Carmel Valley. I have lived there for 10 years. My children attend the schools, play on the sports teams, and we are otherwise embedded into the fabric of the community. EVERYONE I have encountered is adamantly opposed to this project as it is currently slated to be built. IT IS NOT WANTED. Seriously, no one wants it. These are knowledgeable, good people opposed to the project--not some crazy NIMBY whackos. The project has become a despicable joke in our town. Please do the right thing and send Kilroy back to the drawing board.

Honestly, if this city is to be run as a democracy, then this is the easiest, no brainer vote you will ever have in your career.

You have my support to reject the plan, and I can guarantee you have the support of virtually everyone in Carmel Valley as well.

Thank you,

P.S. There was a plan in place. Why should Kilroy be allowed to change that plan. Obviously so they can make more money. And they are spending plenty of money to get their way, so it must be a truly significant amount of money. Listen to those of us who live in the area. We are not against development. Let's just be reasonable!

By ignoring the Carmel Valley, Del Mar Mesa, Torrey Pines and Torrey Hills community planning boards, the City Council sent a message that the feedback from planning groups has a negligible impact on land use decisions, and thus community planning groups have no important role to play in future development of their neighborhoods. I could not disagree more.

In a few weeks, the City Council may have the opportunity to reconsider the project, and I respectfully request that you give that reconsideration the time and attention it deserves.

If, after careful consideration, you are still unwilling to rescind the City Council's decision, and the Council instead elects to place the issue on the ballot, I ask that you ensure it is fairly scheduled for the June 2016 Primary Election, not a special election paid for by Kilroy Realty.

Dear Members of the City Council,

As you know, the controversial One Paseo project has been vigorously debated in the community for the past several years. Thousands of local residents and tens of thousands of San Diegans have raised serious concerns about the project. Four community planning boards rejected One Paseo and now more are speaking out about the dangerous precedent its approval set for development in the City.

Dear Members of the City Council,

As you know, the controversial One Paseo project has been vigorously debated in the community for the past several years. Thousands of local residents and tens of thousands of San Diegans have raised serious concerns about the project. Four community planning boards rejected One Paseo and now more are speaking out about the dangerous precedent its approval set for development in the City.

By ignoring the Carmel Valley, Del Mar Mesa, Torrey Pines and Torrey Hills community planning boards, the City Council sent a message that the feedback from planning groups has a negligible impact on land use decisions, and thus community planning groups have no important role to play in future development of their neighborhoods. I could not disagree more.

In a few weeks, the City Council may have the opportunity to reconsider the project, and I respectfully request that you give that reconsideration the time and attention it deserves.

If, after careful consideration, you are still unwilling to rescind the City Council's decision, and the Council instead elects to place the issue on the ballot, I ask that you ensure it is fairly scheduled for the June 2016 Primary Election, not a special election paid for by Kilroy Realty.

Sincerely,
