Dear Members of the City Council,

As you know, the controversial One Paseo project has been vigorously debated in the community for the past several years. Thousands of local residents and tens of thousands of San Diegans have raised serious concerns about the project. Four community planning boards rejected One Paseo and now more are speaking out about the dangerous precedent its approval set for development in the City.

By ignoring the Carmel Valley, Del Mar Mesa, Torrey Pines and Torrey Hills community planning boards, the City Council sent a message that the feedback from planning groups has a negligible impact on land use decisions, and thus community planning groups have no important role to play in future development of their neighborhoods. I could not disagree more.

In a few weeks, the City Council will have the opportunity to reconsider the project, and I respectfully request that you give that reconsideration the time and attention it deserves.

If, after careful consideration, you are still unwilling to rescind the City Council's decision, and the Council instead elects to place the issue on the ballot, I ask that you ensure it is fairly scheduled for the June 2016 Primary Election, not a special election paid for by Kilroy Realty.

Sincerely,

Furthermore, I suggest you re-think how Kilroy's proposed modernization of traffic signals in Carmel Valley would have any significant effect of reducing backup and gridlock on Del Mar Heights Rd. and the 5 freeway onramps during peak traffic hours, when traffic on the freeway is at or near a standstill, preventing regular traffic, let alone a thousand or more additional vehicles from moving onto a gridlocked freeway. Even the most modern traffic technology cannot "part the Red Sea" on the 5 freeway.

Dear Members of the City Council,

As you know, the controversial One Paseo project has been vigorously debated in the community for the past several years. Thousands of local residents and tens of thousands of San Diegans have raised serious concerns about the project. Four community planning boards rejected One Paseo and now more are speaking out about the dangerous precedent its approval set for development in the City.

By ignoring the Carmel Valley, Del Mar Mesa, Torrey Pines and Torrey Hills community planning boards, the City Council sent a message that the feedback from planning groups has a negligible impact on land use decisions, and thus community planning groups have no important role to play in future development of their neighborhoods. I could not disagree more.

In a few weeks, the City Council will have the opportunity to reconsider the project, and I respectfully request that you give that reconsideration the time and attention it deserves.

If, after careful consideration, you are still unwilling to rescind the City Council's decision, and the Council instead elects to place the issue on the ballot, I ask that you ensure it is fairly scheduled for the June 2016 Primary Election, not a special election paid for by Kilroy Realty.

Thousands of local residents and tens of thousands of San Diegans have raised serious concerns about the project. Four community planning boards rejected One Paseo and now more are speaking out about the dangerous precedent its approval set for development in the City.

By ignoring the Carmel Valley, Del Mar Mesa, Torrey Pines and Torrey Hills community planning boards, the City Council sent a message that the feedback from planning groups has a negligible impact on land use decisions, and thus community planning groups have no important role to play in future development of their neighborhoods. I could not disagree more.

In a few weeks, the City Council will have the opportunity to reconsider the project, and I respectfully request that you give that reconsideration the time and attention it deserves.

If, after careful consideration, you are still unwilling to rescind the City Council's decision, and the Council instead elects to place the issue on the ballot, I ask that you ensure it is fairly scheduled for the June 2016 Primary Election, not a special election paid for by Kilroy Realty.

I was considering sending the standard text, but after listening to you during the last city council meeting I felt a need to be frank.

Perhaps you do not realize how transparent you were. Everyone else did! It was embarrassing.

Take this chance to support your community, and don't go down as just another official who's been bought by people like Killroy.
