CITY OF SAN DIEGO

LOBBYING FIRM REGISTRATION FORM

[Form EC-601]

INTRODUCTION

Lobbying Firms must register with the City Clerk within ten calendar days of qualifying as a "lobbying firm." The City's Lobbying Ordinance defines "lobbying firm" to mean "any entity that receives or becomes entitled to receive any amount of monetary or in-kind compensation to engage in lobbying activities on behalf of any other person, and that has at least one direct communication with a City Official for the purpose of influencing a municipal decision." In other words, a firm is a "lobbying firm" if it lobbies the City on behalf of another party, even if that party only pays $1 for the services. A lobbying firm also includes any entity that engages in lobbying activities on behalf of another person pursuant to a contingency fee agreement.

Lobbying Firms register by completing and filing this Registration Form with the City Clerk, and paying the applicable registration fees. On this form, identify your firm's lobbyists and clients, as well as the campaign fundraising activities, campaign-related services, and City contracts associated with the owners, compensated officers, and lobbyists in your firm.

File one Registration Form to cover the activities of the entire Lobbying Firm. Individual lobbyists do not register. All information relevant to an individual lobbyist should be contained within the firm's Registration Form.

The Registration Form is available from the City Clerk. Electronic versions are available on the City Clerk's website: www.sandiego.gov/city-clerk/elections/lobby/forms.shtml.

You may type or print on the form. If printing, use blue or black ink. If using the electronic version of the form, note that you can type on the form with your computer, but you cannot save the information you enter unless you have the full version of Adobe Acrobat.

When you file the Registration Form, include only the cover sheet and the schedules that contain the firm's disclosures. Do not file the instruction sheets or any schedules on which the firm has nothing to report.

File the original completed and signed form with the City Clerk.

Registration Terminates Every January 5. Annual Re-Registration is Required.

COMPLETING THE FORM

Cover Sheet

- Identify the calendar year in the upper left-hand portion of the form.
- If the report is an amendment, check the applicable box. You are required to file an amendment when information on a previously filed Registration Form has changed, e.g., the firm changes its address, or adds a new client or lobbyist. You must amend your Registration Form within ten calendar days of any change in information.
- Identify the name, address, and telephone number of the firm. For the portion of the cover sheet pertaining to Schedule C (Activities Disclosure), you must check the applicable boxes to indicate whether or not the firm has information to report (for an amendment, check only the boxes relating to the amendment). For information regarding the individual schedules, see the instructions that are located immediately preceding each schedule.
- After you have completed the Registration Form, identify (in the designated location at the top of the cover sheet) the total number of pages you are submitting. Count the cover sheet and all attached schedules. Do not count (and do not file) any of the instruction sheets or any schedules that are blank.
- A duly authorized owner or officer of the lobbying firm must complete the bottom of the cover sheet to verify the accuracy of the information disclosed on the Registration Form. (Optional: include an e-mail address for a point of contact in the firm. It will not be displayed when the form is posted on the City Clerk's website.)

Instructions for Schedule A: Lobbyist Disclosure

This schedule must be completed as part of a Lobbying Firm's registration. Use this schedule to identify every owner, compensated officer, and employee in the firm who lobbied the City within the past 30 calendar days, as well as any such individual in the firm who is reasonably likely to lobby the City later in the year.

Completing the form:

- Identify the firm's name at the top of the schedule.
- List the first and last name of every individual in the firm who:
  - ✓ has lobbied a City Official within the past 30 calendar days, or
  - ✓ the firm reasonably anticipates will engage in lobbying the City later in the year.
- If an individual not identified on Schedule A starts lobbying City Officials, the firm will have to file an amendment within ten calendar days to report that individual as a lobbyist. When amending, identify the individual as a lobbyist on Schedule B, and any fundraising/campaign/contract activities for that individual on Schedule C.
- Check the box at the bottom of the page if you have additional Lobbyist information to report, and disclose that information on a continuation sheet (i.e., another copy of the "Lobbyist Disclosure" schedule). Identify the name of the firm on each continuation sheet.
- If you are filing an amendment to a Registration Form filed earlier in the year, identify only the names of the new lobbyists; do not repeat the names of individuals already registered for the year.

Note: Including the name of prospective lobbyists on the registration form enables the firm to identify such individuals without having to amend the form each time another person in the firm starts lobbying the City.

SCHEDULE A: LOBBYIST DISCLOSURE

Name of Lobbying Firm: ____

Identify the Firm's Lobbyists. List the name of each individual in the firm who has lobbied City Officials within the past 30 days, or is expected to lobby City Officials during the year.

Name of Individual	Name of individual

☐ If more space is needed, check box and attach continuation sheet(s).

Instructions for Schedule B: Client Disclosure

This schedule must be completed as part of every Lobbying Firm's registration. Use this form to identify every client for whom the firm is lobbying the City. A "client" is defined as "any person who provides compensation to a lobbying firm for the purpose of influencing a municipal decision, and any person on whose behalf lobbying is performed by a lobbying firm." Thus, the term "client" includes any the person who pays the firm to lobby, and also includes any person who does not pay the firm but who for whom the firm lobbies. (If a firm has met the registration threshold, i.e., it has received $1 or more for lobbying, it must disclose all of its clients, including its pro bono clients.) A "client" also includes any person who retains a firm to engage in lobbying activities pursuant to a contingency agreement, even if the lobbying efforts are unsuccessful and no fees are received.

Completing the form:

- Identify the firm's name at the top of the schedule.
- List the client's name, address and telephone number.
- Describe the client in sufficient detail to inform the public of the nature and purpose of the client's business. For example, "building contractor" or "wireless telecommunications vendor."
- Describe either the:
  - ✓ specific municipal decision for which the firm was retained (e.g., Living Wage Ordinance) , or
  - ✓ the general types of municipal decisions for which the firm was retained (e.g., matters relating to City storm drain pollution).
- Note than an amendment will be required within ten calendar days if the firm starts lobbying on an additional decision for the client.
- Identify the outcome the client is seeking. For example, "passage of the Living Wage Ordinance," or "the adoption of stricter laws and policies designed to reduce storm drain pollution."
- If a client is a coalition or membership organization, state the name, address, and telephone number of each individual member of the coalition who has paid, or agreed to pay, at least $1,000 to the firm for lobbying activities performed on behalf of the coalition or organization with regard to a specific municipal decision.
  - ✓ For example, Bill is a restaurant owner who organizes Citizens for a Brighter Future, a coalition that supports a City Ordinance designed to reduce crime in the Gaslamp Quarter by increasing the number of streetlights. Bill convinces a dozen other restaurant owners to join the coalition, and he takes up a collection to hire a lobbyist. Most of the owners contribute between $100 and $500 to retain the lobbyist. Bill kicks in $5,000. When the lobbying firm reports its clients, it will disclose that its client is Citizens for a Brighter Future, and will also identify Bill, whose payment for the firm's lobbying services exceeded the $1,000 reporting threshold.
  - ✓ If a coalition member does not meet the $1,000 threshold when the Registration Form is filed, but later makes, or agrees to make, a payment that would cause the member to reach that threshold, the firm must file an amendment to the form to disclose the identity of that member.
- Check the box at the bottom of the page if you have additional client information to report, and disclose that information on a continuation sheet (i.e., another copy of the "Client Disclosure" schedule). Identify the name of the firm on each continuation sheet.

Note: If you lobby on behalf of a client not identified on your Registration Form, you must disclose that client by filing an amendment within ten calendar days of the lobbying contact.

Note: When filing an amendment, do not repeat the names of clients already registered for the year unless the information for that client has changed, e.g., a change in the outcome sought; the client re-retained you for a new purpose; the client is a coalition and a member reached the $1,000 threshold.
