SUBJECT: Plan To Preserve Neighborhood Services in Fiscal Year 2012 Budget

In the three weeks since the release of the proposed Fiscal Year 2012 budget, I have had the opportunity to speak with San Diego families, businesses, community leaders and organizations about their priorities for our city. They have spoken very clearly. They want effective use of their tax dollars, innovative solutions to our budget challenges and leadership to ensure our communities receive core city services.

It is with this in mind that I propose this plan to preserve neighborhood services in the Fiscal Year 2012 budget. My plan restores library and recreation center hours to their current levels and provides continued funding for after school programs, pool hours and programs, and beach fire pit rings.

This can be accomplished through a combination of fiscally responsible reductions to non-core functions and development of new public-private partnerships, all of which offset cuts to front-line services while not pushing the budget deficit to future years. I also include options for additional revenue and efficiencies that can be implemented throughout the upcoming fiscal year. These ideas come from a variety of sources, including the Independent Budget Analyst, City Auditor and the private sector. The details of my plan are attached.

I greatly appreciate Mayor Jerry Sanders including the elimination of the fire engine brownout program in the proposed budget. Public safety must be our top priority.

I do not take the cuts in my proposal lightly. However, I strongly believe we must protect fundamental city services such as libraries and recreation centers when tough decisions must be made.

I continue to have concerns about other proposals in the proposed budget, including the methodology for Fire-Rescue Department high-rise inspection fees and Police Department entertainment permit fees. I am also concerned that no notice has yet been provided to the thousands of small businesses to which the City plans to terminate refuse collection service by July 1, 2011. I look forward to fully vetting these issues during budget deliberations in the coming weeks.

Libraries, recreation centers and beach fire pits are part of the fabric of our community. Restoring core city services to their current levels – along with the scheduled end to the rolling fire engine brownouts – is one of several steps I am taking to ensure local tax dollars are used to protect our neighborhoods, our children and our quality of life.
