Councilmember Gloria Thanks President Obama for Equality Support

SAN DIEGO, CA (May 9, 2012) – San Diego City Councilmember Todd Gloria released this statement following President Barack Obama’s comments today in support of marriage equality.

“Our President has once again broken a barrier that many thought would never be broken in our lifetime,” said Councilmember Todd Gloria. “This is a historic step for equality. I thank the President for taking this courageous stand and am grateful for his leadership.

“Years from now, we will remember where we were when we learned that the leader of the free world formally lent his support for the freedom to marry. Today’s announcement reminds us that in America, all are created equal. I look forward to the day when all Americans are treated equally by their government.”
