Councilmember Gloria Comments on Plaza de Panama Lawsuit

SAN DIEGO, CA (August 13, 2012) – San Diego City Councilmember Todd Gloria today commented following the filing of a lawsuit challenging the City’s approval of the Plaza de Panama project in Balboa Park.

“We knew that removing cars from Balboa Park and giving it back to the people for pedestrian would not be easy. Nothing worth doing ever is. San Diegans desire to see the park improved in time for the 2015 centennial celebration, and the plan will not be derailed by frivolous litigation. We will fight this and we will prevail. When we do, the winners will be Balboa Park and future generations of San Diegans who will enjoy the park car-free for the next one hundred years and beyond,” said Councilmember Todd Gloria, whose district includes Balboa Park.
